

To whom it may concern,

I am a subscriber to XM Radio and concerned with the attempt by the National Association of Broadcasters to stifle free speech and fair competition. XM Radio provides a valuable service to the transportation industry through the broadcast of entertainment and most of all traffic and weather reports for major metro areas throughout the United States.

Please don't succumb to this bullying and tell the NAB to COMPETE fairly.

Thank you, Anthony Caywood